

Map not to scale

JUBA

Juba, the capital of South Sudan, offers a blend of cultural diversity and natural beauty. Explore bustling markets, historic landmarks and the banks of the White Nile River. Discover traditional dances, local cuisine, and vibrant street life. Experience the warmth of South Sudanese hospitality in this emerging destination.

What to see

Image Source: Wikipedia

01

Juba Cathedral

Admire the architectural beauty of Juba Cathedral, a prominent landmark and the seat of the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Juba, offering a serene atmosphere for reflection and worship in the heart of the city.

02

Jebel Kujur

Hike to the top of Jebel Kujur, the highest peak in Juba, for panoramic views of the surrounding landscape and the majestic White Nile River, providing a picturesque backdrop for outdoor adventures and leisurely picnics.

03

Juba Bridge

Cross the Juba Bridge spanning the White Nile River, connecting the city centre with the western bank, offering scenic views of the river and bustling boat traffic, providing a unique perspective on Juba's transportation infrastructure and waterways.

04

Mausoleum of John Garang

Pay homage to the legacy of South Sudan's founding father at the Mausoleum of John Garang, a memorial site dedicated to the late leader and his contributions to the country's struggle for independence and nation-building.

Experiences

Image Source: Wikimedia Commons

01

White Nile Rafting

Brave the rapids of the White Nile River on an exhilarating rafting adventure in Juba, offering adrenaline-pumping thrills amidst stunning scenery and challenging waters.

02

Wildlife Safaris

Embark on wildlife safaris in South Sudan's national parks, where you can spot diverse species in their natural habitats.

03

Mountain Trekking

Explore the rugged terrain of South Sudan's mountains on a trekking expedition, providing opportunities for outdoor adventure and exploration.

Hand-woven Baskets at Juba Market

Browse Juba Market for intricately crafted hand-woven baskets made by local artisans, offering a variety of sizes, shapes, and designs perfect for storage or decorative purposes, providing an authentic and culturally rich souvenir of South Sudan.

Where & what to buy

Traditional Fabrics at Konyo Konyo Market

Visit Konyo Konyo Market in Juba for a vibrant assortment of traditional fabrics, including colourful prints and patterns inspired by South Sudanese culture, perfect for creating clothing, accessories, or home decor items with unique and authentic African flair.

Leather Goods at Gudele Market

Shop at Gudele Market for a selection of high-quality leather goods, including belts, wallets, and bags handcrafted by skilled artisans using locally sourced leather, offering durable and stylish accessories with a touch of South Sudanese craftsmanship and heritage.

Eat Right

Nile Perch

Indulge in fresh Nile perch in Juba, where the locally sourced fish is expertly prepared and served with a variety of flavourful sauces and side dishes, providing a delicious taste of South Sudanese cuisine.

Kisra and Bamia

Enjoy traditional Sudanese dishes like kisra (sourdough flatbread) and bamia (okra stew) at various restaurants in Juba.

Sambusa at Street Food Stalls

Taste sambusa, savoury stuffed pastries, at street food stalls throughout Juba, where vendors offer a variety of fillings such as minced meat, lentils, or vegetables, providing a convenient and tasty snack option for on-the-go dining.