

Map not to scale

DZAOUUDZI

Dzaoudzi, a picturesque town on Mayotte Island, offers a blend of French and Comorian culture. Its pristine beaches, vibrant markets, and historical sites make it a charming destination. Explore its coral reefs, indulge in local cuisine, and immerse yourself in the island's unique ambiance.

What to see

01

Dziani Dzaha Crater

A stunning volcanic crater lake. Visitors can hike to its rim for breath-taking views or swim in its crystal-clear waters, immersing in a unique geological marvel.

02

Mayotte Lagoon

PS- Please check before visiting

cityscape.aero

03

Bandrele Forest

Home to endemic species like the Comoros fruit bat.

04

Le Jardin Maoré

A botanical garden showcasing Mayotte's flora.

05

Dzaoudzi Market

Experience the local culture and flavours.

01

Snorkelling Excursion

Explore the vibrant marine life of the Mayotte Lagoon.

02

Hiking to Mont Choungui

Enjoy panoramic views of the island from its highest peak.

03

Whale Watching Tour

Witness humpback whales during their migration season.

04

Kayaking in Saziley Nature Reserve

Some distance away, paddle through mangroves and discover hidden coves.

05

Deep Sea Fishing

Embark on a fishing excursion to catch tuna, marlin, and more in the Indian Ocean.

Vanilla Pods

Fresh and aromatic, sourced from local plantations.

Where & what to buy

Spices

Explore a variety of spices, reflecting the island's culinary heritage.

Coconut-based Products

From oils to handmade soaps, indulge in natural skincare.

Eat Right

Mabawa

A traditional dish of fish cooked in coconut milk.

Langouste Grillée

Grilled spiny lobster, a local delicacy.

Pilao

Mkoulou

A sweet pastry filled with coconut and sugar, a local favourite.

Baba Au Rhum

Indulge in this French-inspired rum-soaked cake.