

Map not to scale

MAPUTO

Maputo, Mozambique's capital, is a bustling port city that came up around a Portuguese fortress completed around 1780s. Located along the Espírito Santo Estuary of Delagoa Bay, an inlet of the Indian Ocean, it enchants visitors with its blend of colonial charm, vibrant culture and coastal beauty. From historical landmarks to lively markets, Maputo offers a captivating experience.

What to see

PS- Please check before visiting

cityscape.aero

Fortaleza de Maputo

Source: Wikimedia commons

Explore the historic fortress, built by the Portuguese in the late 19th century, offering panoramic views of the city and coastline.

Praça da Independência

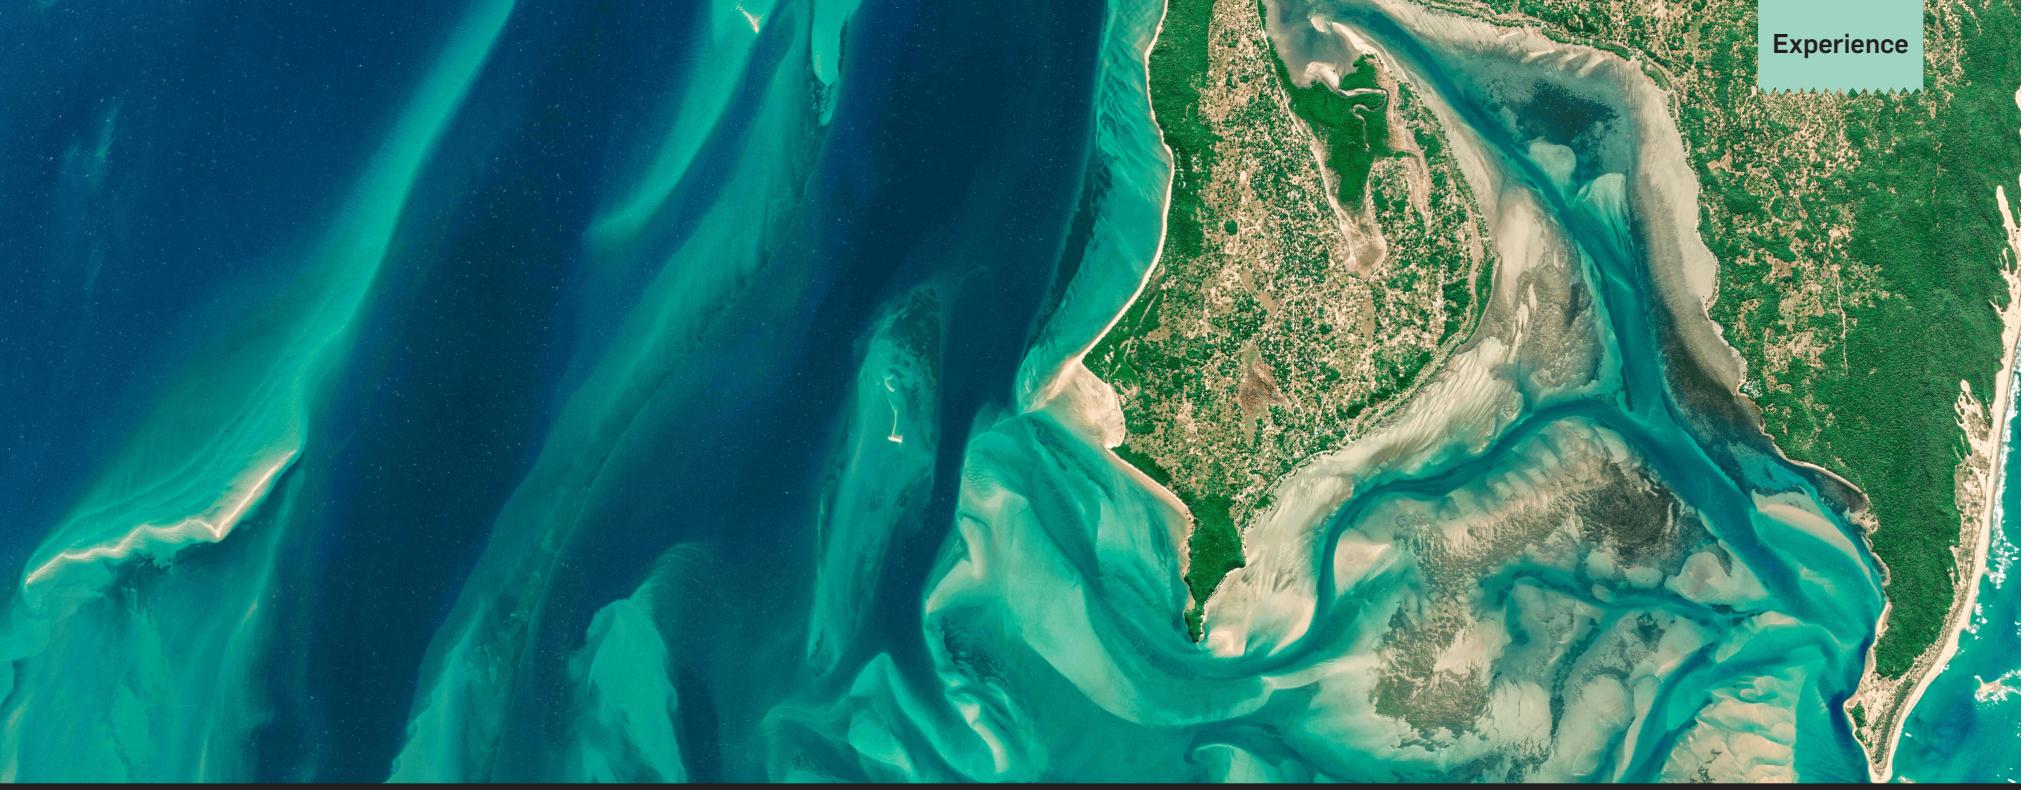

Source: Wikimedia commons

Wander through Maputo's main square, surrounded by colonial-era buildings, statues, and vibrant street vendors.

FEIMA - Feira de Artesanato, Flores e Gastronomia

Experience Maputo's cultural diversity at this weekly craft and food market, showcasing artisanal products and traditional cuisine.

Experiences

01

Dhow Cruise in Maputo Bay

Sail aboard a traditional wooden dhow, exploring the bay's islands, coral reefs, and coastal scenery while enjoying fresh seafood and breath-taking sunsets.

02

Snorkelling at Inhaca Island

Dive into the crystal-clear waters surrounding Inhaca Island (around 39 km far), discovering colourful coral reefs, tropical fish, and marine life in a pristine marine sanctuary.

Shop

Capulanas

Purchase colourful and intricately patterned capulana fabrics, used for clothing, home decor and accessories, at Maputo Central Market.

Where & what to buy

Handicrafts

Browse handmade crafts such as wood carvings, baskets, and jewellery, sold by local artisans.

African Music

Explore Maputo's vibrant music scene with CDs or vinyl records featuring traditional and contemporary African music, sold at music stores and markets.

Eat Right

Piri Piri Prawns

Indulge in spicy grilled prawns, a local delicacy, served with rice or bread at various restaurants.

Matapa

Taste Mozambique's traditional dish of cassava leaves cooked in coconut milk with peanuts and spices.

Peri-Peri Chicken

Savour flame-grilled chicken marinated in peri-peri sauce, served with fries or salad at Costa do Sol or Maputo Fish Market.