

Map not to scale

HARARE

Harare, Zimbabwe's vibrant capital, is a laid-back African paradise with wide avenues lined by blooming jacaranda, fine dining restaurants, bars, markets and museums. Enjoy serene walks in its gardens and discover colonial-era architecture. Experience Zimbabwean hospitality and cuisine.

What to see

National Gallery of Zimbabwe

Image Source: Wikipedia

Marvel at a diverse collection of contemporary African art, including paintings, sculptures, and installations, showcasing Zimbabwean artists' talent and cultural expression.

01

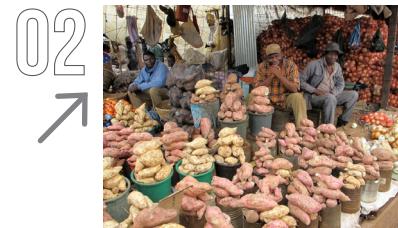

Image Source: Wikipedia

Mbare Musika Market

Experience the vibrant atmosphere of Harare's largest market, where locals gather to buy fresh produce, crafts, and household goods amidst bustling stalls and lively street vendors.

02

Harare Gardens

Escape the urban hustle and bustle in this peaceful oasis, featuring manicured lawns, colourful flower beds, and shady trees, ideal for picnics, leisurely strolls, and quiet moments of relaxation.

Zimbabwe Museum of Human Sciences

Journey through Zimbabwe's rich history and cultural heritage, exploring archaeological artefacts, ethnographic displays, and interactive exhibits that highlight the country's diverse peoples and traditions.

03

Experiences

01

Zip-lining at the Canopy Walkway

Soar through the treetops on a thrilling zip-lining adventure at the Canopy Walkway in Harare's Kuimba Shiri Bird Park, offering breath-taking views of the surrounding landscape and a unique perspective on Zimbabwe's natural beauty.

02

White Water Rafting on the Zambezi River

Brave the rapids of the mighty Zambezi River on a white water rafting excursion, where adrenaline-seekers can navigate through thrilling Class IV and V rapids amidst stunning gorges and cascading waterfalls, providing an exhilarating adventure in Zimbabwe's wild heart.

03

Abseiling down Chirundu Gorge

Descend into the depths of Chirundu Gorge (around 350 km from Harare) on an abseiling adventure, rappelling down sheer rock faces and towering cliffs while surrounded by stunning scenery and rugged landscapes offering an adrenaline-pumping challenge.

Batik Fabric at Avondale Flea Market

Discover vibrant batik fabrics at Avondale Flea Market in Harare, where local vendors offer a colourful array of hand-dyed textiles featuring traditional designs and patterns, perfect for creating clothing, accessories, or home decor items that celebrate Zimbabwean craftsmanship and style.

Handcrafted Sculptures at Chapungu Sculpture Park

Explore a diverse collection of stone sculptures at this famous Park in Harare, where Zimbabwean artists showcase their talent and craftsmanship, offering unique and authentic pieces of African art for sale amidst the tranquil surroundings of this outdoor gallery.

Where & what to buy

Wire and Bead Crafts at Borrowdale Flea Market

Shop for intricate wire and bead crafts at Borrowdale Flea Market in Harare, where talented artisans showcase their creativity through handmade jewellery, sculptures, and decorative items, offering unique and eye-catching souvenirs that reflect Zimbabwean artistry and ingenuity.

Shona Stone Sculptures at Mbare Musika Market

Browse the stalls of Mbare Musika market in Harare for a wide selection of Shona stone sculptures, hand-carved by local artisans using traditional techniques and depicting a variety of themes, from wildlife and abstract forms to cultural motifs, providing a glimpse into Zimbabwe's rich artistic heritage.

Eat Right

Sadza and Stew at Pariah State

Indulge in Zimbabwe's staple dish, sadza (cornmeal porridge), served with flavourful stew at Pariah State in Harare's Avondale suburb, offering a taste of traditional Zimbabwean cuisine in a stylish and contemporary setting.

Nyama Choma at Chesa Nyama

Savour succulent grilled meats, known as Nyama Choma, at Chesa Nyama in Harare's Newlands suburb, where you can enjoy a variety of meats, including beef, chicken, and pork, cooked to perfection over an open flame and served with savoury sauces and side dishes.

Maheu and Fried Fish at Mbare Musika

Enjoy a refreshing glass of maheu, a traditional Zimbabwean beverage made from fermented maize, paired with crispy fried fish at Mbare Musika market in Harare, where street vendors offer freshly cooked meals and snacks amidst the lively atmosphere of this bustling market.

Mopani Worms at Pariah State

Experience a culinary adventure with mopani worms, a local delicacy, served at Pariah State in Harare, where these protein-rich caterpillars are prepared in various ways, such as grilled, fried, or stewed, offering a unique and memorable taste of Zimbabwean cuisine.