

Map not to scale

GUANGZHOU

Guangzhou, earlier popular as Canton, has been one of China's busiest ports for centuries. Yet it has a relaxed pace and life gently flows along narrow winding roads, lined by trees. Temples, mosques and colonial-era buildings stand in serene and shaded neighbourhoods. Explore traditional eateries and unique shophouses.

What to see

01

Canton Tower

Admire the futuristic design and panoramic views from Canton Tower, Guangzhou's iconic landmark and one of the tallest towers in the world, offering observation decks, restaurants, and thrilling skywalks for an unforgettable urban experience.

02

Yuexiu Park

Relax in the tranquil greenery of Yuexiu Park, the largest park in Guangzhou, with scenic lakes, historic pagodas, and the famous Five Ram Statue, providing a serene retreat amidst the bustling cityscape.

03

Guangzhou Opera House

Experience world-class performances in the strikingly futuristic Guangzhou Opera House, designed by renowned architect Zaha Hadid, featuring innovative architecture, state-of-the-art facilities, and a diverse program of opera, ballet, and concerts.

04

Shamian Island

Stroll along the tree-lined streets of Shamian Island, a historic enclave known for its colonial architecture, charming cafes, and tranquil waterfront promenade, offering a picturesque escape from the urban hustle and bustle of Guangzhou.

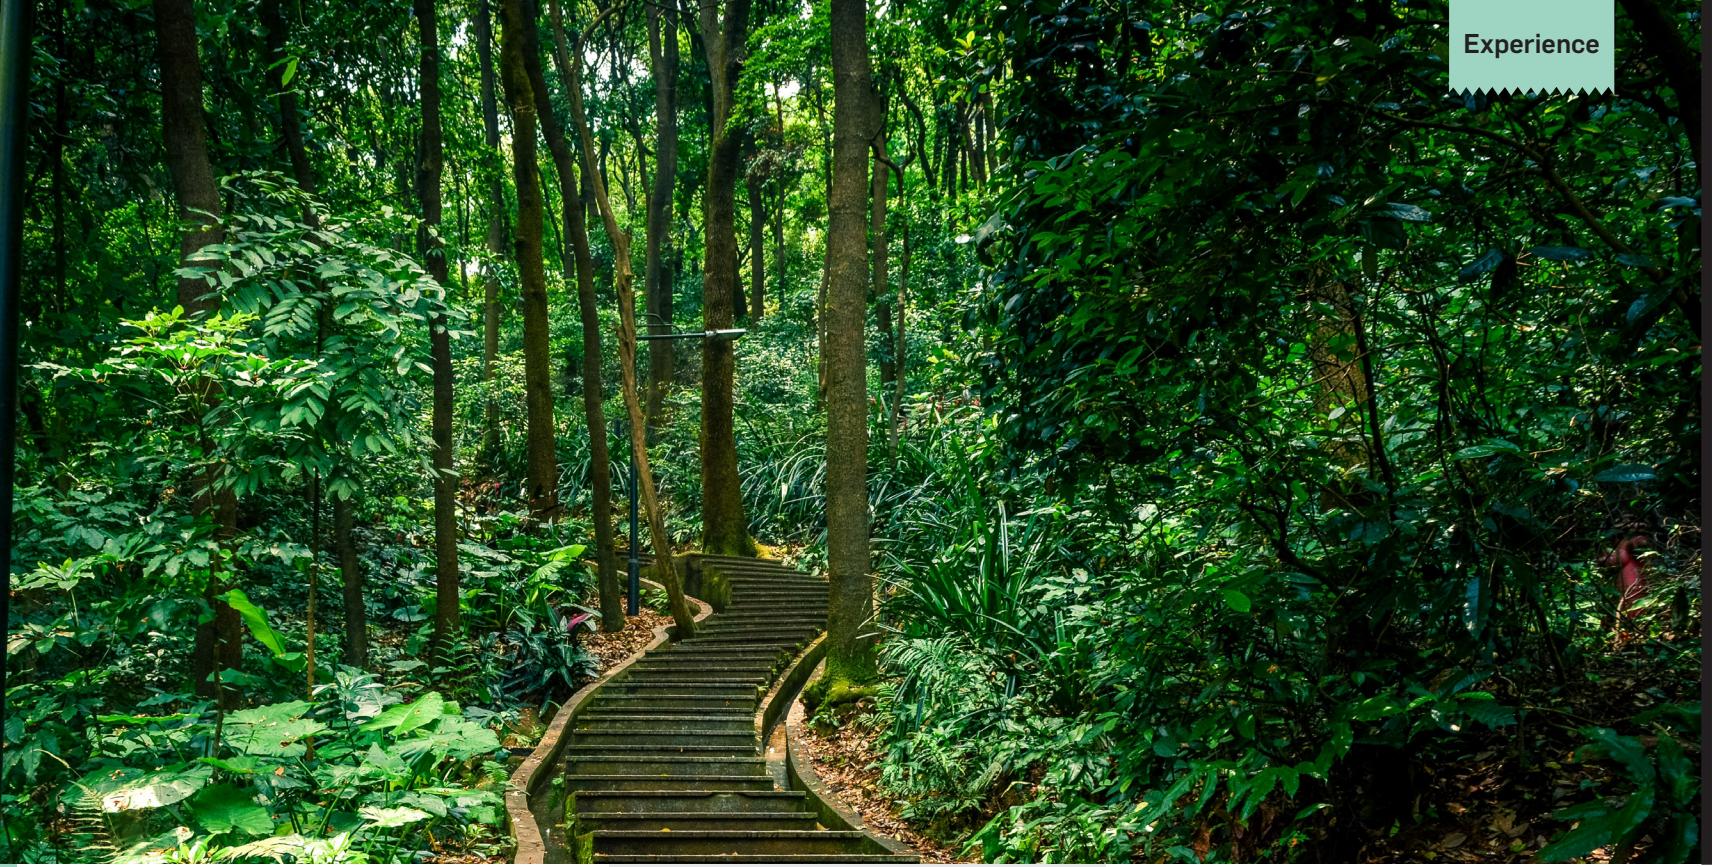

05

Chen Clan Ancestral Hall

Marvel at the intricate architecture and ornate decorations of Chen Clan Ancestral Hall, a UNESCO-listed complex showcasing traditional Cantonese craftsmanship through its stunning wood carvings, ceramic sculptures, and colourful murals.

Experiences

01

Baiyun Mountain

Hike through lush forests and scenic trails in Baiyun Mountain, offering breathtaking views of Guangzhou's skyline and surrounding landscapes, providing an exhilarating outdoor adventure amidst nature's beauty.

02

Kayaking on the Pearl River

Paddle along the Pearl River on a kayaking excursion, exploring the city's iconic waterway and soaking up panoramic views of Guangzhou's landmarks and skyline from a unique perspective.

03

Climbing at Luofu Mountain

Challenge yourself with rock climbing and bouldering at Luofu Mountain, a renowned climbing destination in Guangdong Province, featuring rugged cliffs, sheer rock faces, and challenging routes suitable for climbers of all skill levels.

Pearl River New Town

Explore the upscale shopping district of Pearl River New Town, home to luxury boutiques, designer stores, and high-end shopping malls like Taikoo Hui, offering a premium shopping experience with a diverse range of international and domestic brands.

Where & what to buy

Shangxiajiu Pedestrian Street

Discover the historic charm of Shangxiajiu Pedestrian Street, a bustling shopping district known for its traditional architecture, bustling market stalls, and a wide array of shops selling clothing, shoes, accessories, and local snacks, offering a vibrant and authentic shopping experience in Guangzhou.

Qingping Market

Immerse yourself in the lively atmosphere of Qingping Market, Guangzhou's largest traditional market, where vendors sell fresh produce, seafood, meats, herbs, spices, and traditional Chinese medicines, providing an authentic glimpse into daily life and local culture while offering a diverse range of goods and specialties.

Eat Right

Dim Sum at Lin Heung Tea House

Indulge in traditional Cantonese dim sum at Lin Heung Tea House, a historic eatery in Guangzhou, offering a variety of steamed dumplings, buns, and savoury snacks served in a lively atmosphere brimming with local flavour.

Roast Goose at Bing Sheng Restaurant

Delight your taste buds with the succulent roast goose at Bing Sheng Restaurant, renowned for its crispy skin and tender meat infused with aromatic spices and flavours, providing a mouth-watering culinary experience in the heart of Guangzhou.

Char Siu at Sik Gaek BBQ

Taste the melt-in-your-mouth goodness of char siu (barbecue pork) at Sik Gaek BBQ, a popular eatery in Guangzhou known for its succulent pork slices glazed with a sweet and savoury marinade, offering a delectable dining experience that's sure to leave you craving more.

Herbal Soup at Lao Dafeng Soup House

Nourish your body with nourishing herbal soup at Lao Dafeng Soup House, specializing in traditional Chinese soups made with a variety of medicinal herbs, ingredients, and slow-cooking techniques to create healthy and wholesome dishes, providing a taste of Guangzhou's culinary heritage.