MAHE ISLAND

Mahe Island, the largest in the Seychelles archipelago, and home to the country's capital, Victoria, entices with its pristine beaches, lush rainforests and vibrant culture. From hiking across the rugged landscape of Morne Seychellois National Park and diving and snorkelling in glorious bays to revelling in turquoise waters teeming with marine life, exploring botanical gardens brimming with endemic flora, and unwinding in luxury resorts, Mahe is synonymous with paradise.

What to see

01

Takamaka Beach and Bay

A stretch of serene white sand with jaw-dropping sunset views. The bay is home to one of the oldest distilleries in the Seychelles, where visitors can learn about rum production and sample artisanal blends.

02

Morne Seychellois National Park

The Morne Seychellois National Park is a lush paradise with mangroves, tropical jungles, and tall mountains. The park offers some of the best hikes on the island, including a challenging trek to the summit of its highest peak, Morne Seychellois, which rewards hikers with stunning panoramic views.

03

Beau Vallon

One of the longest beaches in the Seychelles, Beau Vallon is among the most popular sites for tourists. It offers a wide variety of water sports and fine-dining options.

04

Anse Major Beach

One of the most beautiful beaches on Mahe, Anse Major is not easily accessible and so, stays off-bound for most tourists.

05

Seychelles National Botanical Gardens

Lush oasis showcasing endemic flora, giant tortoises, and vibrant birdlife, ideal for nature lovers and photographers.

Experiences

01

Snorkelling

Explore vibrant coral reefs and diverse marine life at Baie Ternay Marine National Park, offering crystal-clear waters and guided snorkelling tours.

02

Rock Climbing

Challenge yourself on the granite cliffs of Anse Major with Seychelles Rock Climbing, enjoying stunning coastal vistas and thrilling climbs.

03

Kayaking

Paddle along the coastline of Port Launay Marine National Park on a kayaking excursion with Mahe Kayaking Adventures, exploring hidden coves and mangrove forests.
