

Map not to scale

Essentials

Currency: Sudanese Pound

Language: Sudanese Arabic

KHARTOUM

Khartoum, Sudan's capital, is a vibrant, modern and glitzy city with towering glass facades marking its skyline. Standing at the confluence of the Blue and the White Nile rivers, the city captivates with its rich history, colourful culture, and stunning landscapes. From ancient ruins to bustling markets, Khartoum offers a myriad of experiences.

What to see

01

National Museum of Sudan

Explore exhibits showcasing Sudan's archaeological treasures, including ancient artefacts and Nubian relics.

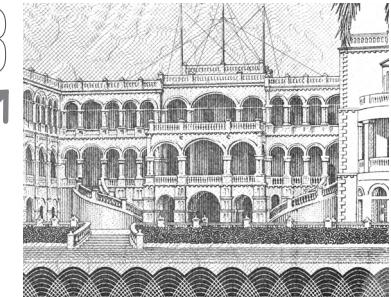

02

Nile Street

Stroll along the scenic Nile River promenade, lined with colonial-era buildings, cafes, and gardens, offering panoramic views of the river.

03

Sudan Presidential Palace

Admire the grandeur of the presidential residence, an iconic landmark overlooking the confluence of the Blue and White Nile rivers.

04

Sudan Ethnographic Museum

Discover Sudan's diverse cultural heritage through exhibits showcasing traditional clothing, crafts, and customs of various ethnic groups.

Experiences

01

Nile River Cruise

Sail along the majestic Nile River, enjoying scenic views of Khartoum's skyline and landmarks, with options for sunset cruises and dinner outings.

02

Hot Air Ballooning

Soar above Khartoum and the Nile River, witnessing panoramic views of the city, riverbanks, and surrounding desert from a unique aerial perspective.

03

Nuba Wrestlers

Image Source: Wikimedia Commons

This sporting tradition, derived from various indigenous rituals of the Nuba Mountains, attracts thousands of spectators and athletes from diverse ethnic backgrounds, predominantly from the working class, in a stadium in Khartoum.

04

Sufi ritual

Image Source: Wikimedia Commons

Every week, a mesmerising Sufi ritual is held at the Hamed el-Nil Tomb, with whirling dervishes.

05

Camel Market

The Khartoum Camel Market serves as a bustling hub where traders and buyers converge to buy and sell these iconic desert animals. Located on the outskirts of Khartoum, it offers a vibrant display of Sudanese culture and commerce, attracting visitors keen to witness the lively atmosphere and engage in traditional trading practices.

Sudanese Crafts

Purchase handmade baskets, pottery, jewellery, and traditional clothing, crafted by local artisans, at Omdurman Souq or Khartoum Craft Market.

Where & what to buy

Spices

Buy aromatic spices such as cinnamon, cardamom, and Sudanese berbere blend, used in local cuisine, at spice stalls in Omdurman Souq.

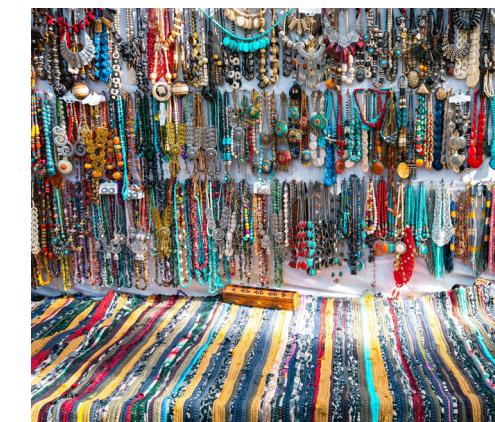

Oud

Experience the exotic scents of Sudanese oud perfume, made from agarwood, at perfume shops in Khartoum's markets and malls.

Nubian Jewellery

Adorn yourself with intricately designed silver jewellery, inspired by Nubian culture and traditions, available at jewellery shops in Khartoum.

Eat Right

Ful Medames

Try Sudan's national dish of mashed fava beans, served with olive oil, garlic, and spices, available at local eateries like Al Zagaar.

Kofta

Indulge in grilled spiced meatballs, a flavourful street food favourite, served with bread and salad at El Neelain Restaurant.

Kisra

Try Sudan's traditional flatbread made from fermented sorghum or millet dough, served with stews or dips, found at local markets and restaurants.

Shai Karak

Relax with a cup of Sudanese-style sweet tea with milk and spices, a popular beverage served at tea stalls and cafes throughout Khartoum.