

Map not to scale.

Zanzibar

ZANZIBAR

A sparkling island paradise in the Tanzanian archipelago off the coast of East Africa, Zanzibar is dotted with pristine beaches that are known as the finest in the world. Swim in the pleasant waters, snorkel among schools of fish and dolphins near coral gardens or just bask in the sun.

Essentials

Currency: Tanzanian Shilling

Language: Swahili

What to see

01 Stone Town

Wander through the historic alleys, mosques, and palaces of Zanzibar's UNESCO-listed Stone Town, a cultural crossroads with Arab, Indian, and African influences.

02 Jozani Forest

Explore Zanzibar's last remaining indigenous forest, home to the rare red colobus monkeys, along with diverse flora and fauna.

03 Spice Farms

Take a guided tour of Zanzibar's aromatic spice plantations, learning about the island's history as a major spice producer and sampling fresh spices.

04 Princess Salme Museum

Curated by Said al Gheithy, a renowned historian, this little museum narrates the story of Princess Salme.

Experiences

01

Snorkelling at Mnemba Atoll

Dive into the crystal-clear waters surrounding Mnemba Atoll, discovering vibrant coral reefs, tropical fish, and marine life on a guided snorkelling excursion.

02

Spice Tour

Embark on a sensory journey through Zanzibar's spice plantations, learning about the island's rich spice heritage and sampling fresh spices, fruits, and culinary delights.

Shop

Spices

Purchase fresh and aromatic spices such as cloves, cinnamon, and vanilla, directly from spice farms or at the local markets in Stone Town.

Where & what to buy

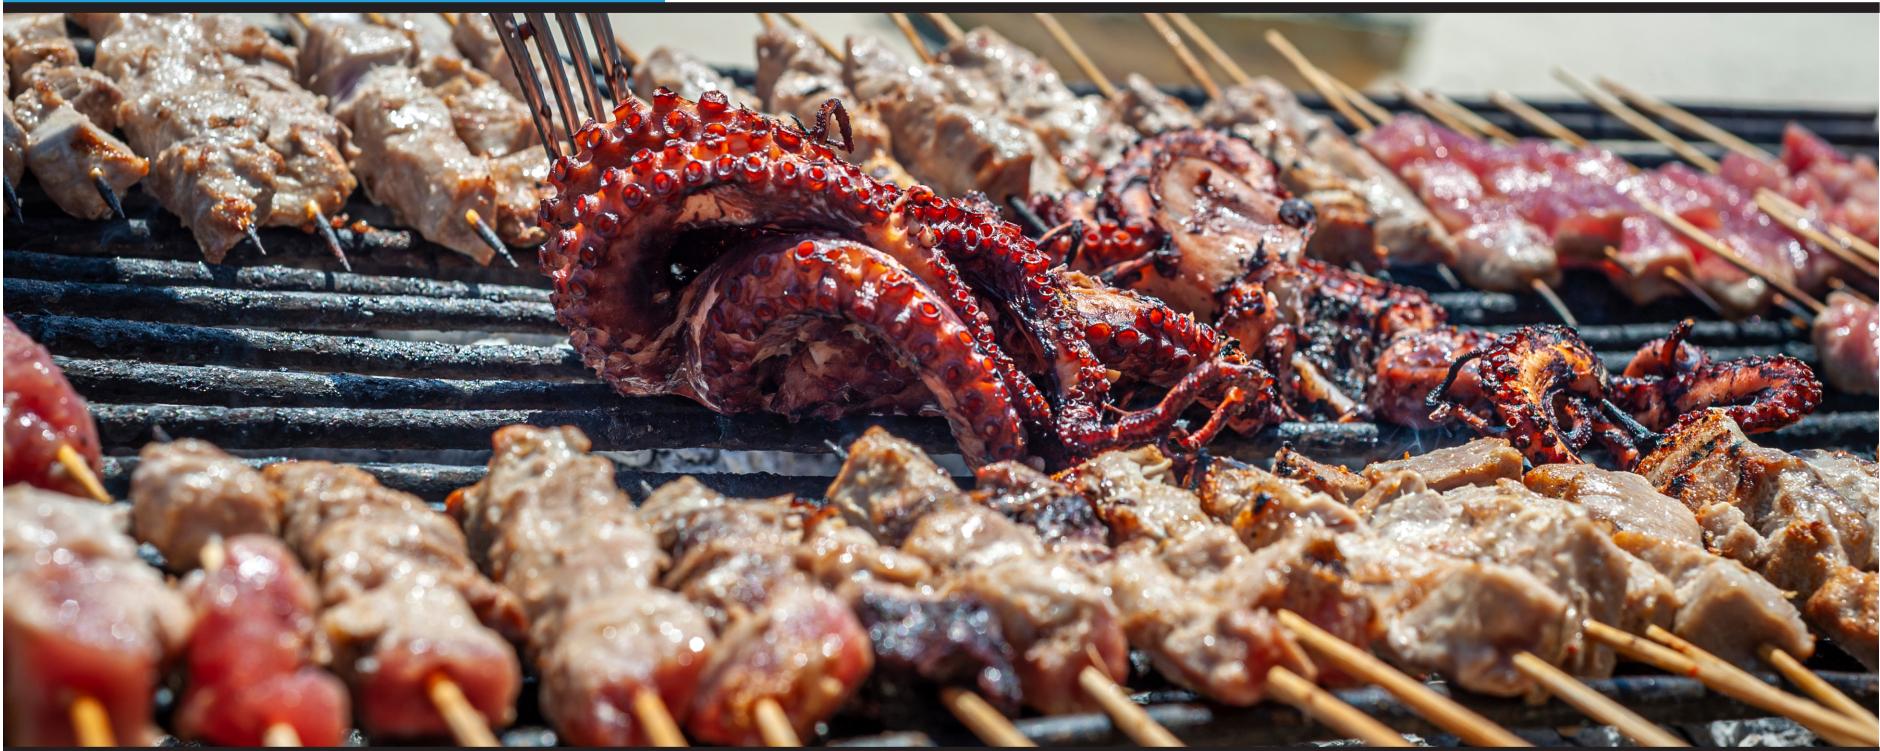

Tinga Tinga Paintings

Buy colourful and vibrant paintings depicting scenes of Zanzibari life and nature, created by local artists, at art galleries and markets in Stone Town.

Eat Right

Zanzibari Pizza

Try the local take on pizza, with a thin crust filled with savoury toppings like meat, cheese, and vegetables, cooked to perfection in a charcoal oven at various food joints.

Zanzibari Curry

Sample aromatic curries made with locally sourced spices, coconut milk, and fresh seafood or meat, served with rice or chapati.

PS- Please check with the restaurant before visiting cityscape.aero

Urojo

Image Source: Wikimedia Commons

Taste a refreshing and tangy soup made with lentils, potatoes, and spices, topped with fried snacks like bhajias and served with bread, at the famous Urojo shops in Stone Town.